THE GATEWAY TO EXCELLENT CARE
October 22, 2010
Hosted by Baptist Health South Florida

The South Florida Nursing Research Consortium of the Nursing Consortium of South Florida has invited nurses and students from clinical, educational and research settings to submit abstracts for papers, posters, and symposia for our 2010 conference, "BEST EVIDENCE FROM RESEARCH: THE GATEWAY TO EXCELLENT CARE." This day-long event at Jungle Island will bring together clinical and academic health providers to identify achievable ways to link research and practice.

You are invited to consider supporting this opportunity for nurses and students to exchange ideas and research results that take place in or enhance the practice setting. Your support at a generous level will be most appreciated, and will be recognized with prominent mention of your generosity in the conference program materials and throughout the day at the conference location. Support at the $1000 level will include an exhibit table on the day of the conference (only 13 tables available) in addition to the other benefits just listed.
